A Lakeview surgeon (?) attempted to get the fractured bone back to its place by cutting a rough hole and screwing an ordinary gimlet into the bone, but it was such an awkward, unprofes-conal job that a nineteenth century Grand Rapids surgeon had to do the work over again.

They are having a great time with the name of a place at present called billverwood on the northern border of Lapeer county. The name has teen changed by the government at the request of the inhabitants four times within a short period. It was Easy, Silver Creek, Rollo and Silverwood. The brakemen of the P. H. & N. railroad in announcing the place usually pronounce all four names without drawing breath.

A baby born recently in Washtenaw county is marked in a peculiar man-ner. Upon its left arm appear the letters of the alphabet in the order in which they are arranged in a printer's capital letter case, the J's and U's being last.
